

ThePornEvent.com

ThePornEvent.com

Thanks for your interest in ThePornEvent.com! Beginning the afternoon of May 5 (when ThePornEvent.com is live), feel free to post any of the information below on your blog, Facebook page, or Twitter. As you have questions you can call or email Tony Steward (tony.steward@lifechurch.tv).

Main Description:

The Porn Event is a 25-minute experience where people can learn more about the real-life effects of pornography. The event features different options for men and women that include transparent conversation, real answers, and the opportunity to take a next step in getting help which can be used for groups or as an individual.

Detailed Description:

LifeChurch.tv and XXXChurch.com present ThePornEvent.com, a 25-minute interactive experience focused on the real-life effects of pornography. ThePornEvent.com has two segments, one for men and one for women; more details and the schedule can be found at ThePornEvent.com. During ThePornEvent.com we will examine the effect porn has on our lives and relationships, and look at next steps for those who are struggling. Expect a non-threatening environment featuring stories, helpful answers, and an open conversation with people who've traveled a similar path. ThePornEvent.com is for anyone who is interested in what it looks like to live a life beyond pornography.

Men's Segment

During the men's segment of ThePornEvent.com, we'll take an honest look at how porn affects us as men, fathers, and husbands. Through stories, answers to common questions, and open conversation we will talk about the hope men can find in life beyond pornography.

Women's Segment

During the women's segment of ThePornEvent.com, we will talk about how porn affects us as women, mothers, and wives. Through stories, answers to common questions, and open conversation we will talk about the hope found beyond our personal struggles with porn and also how to support and care for family members that are dealing with sexual addiction.

Twitter Descriptions

Want to get real about porn? ThePornEvent.com

How does porn influence us? ThePornEvent.com

Discussion

(If you'd like to spur discussion on your blog around this topic, feel free to use one or more of these questions.)

- How can anonymity be used for good? (ThePornEvent.com is looking to connect with people dealing with sexual addiction allowing them to be anonymous during the event with a priority focus on care versus control.)
- Do porn struggles go away? What are you doing in your life to deal with pornography?
- Will porn hurt your marriage?
- How does your porn usage effect your kids?
- Porn Kills: There is story after story of how porn has killed marriages, relationships, and character. Talk about the stories you are aware of or draw them out of your community.
- Porn is a "her" problem too. Women are also struggling with sexual addiction and pornography.
- Mom, how do you talk to your son about pornography? Dad may not be around, but your son still needs to know how to avoid sexual addiction.
- Has your life been affected by porn? How?
- What are some ways you keep yourself accountable when it comes to porn?
- Do you have pornography-filtering software on your computer? How about your phone? Why or why not? If so, how has it influenced your computer/ phone usage?
- Can porn addiction happen to anyone?
- When and how should married individuals ask if their spouse is using porn?
- What kinds of questions can we ask our children to protect them from porn?

Relevant Statistics

(Relevant Statistics from XXX Church)

- 42.7% of Internet users view porn
- 20% of men say they view porn at work.
- 53% of Christian men consume pornography.
- Breakdown of male/female visitors to pornography sites: 72% male & 28% female
- 17% of all women struggle with pornography addiction.
- The average age of first Internet exposure to pornography is 11 years old.
- 90% of 8-16-year-olds have viewed porn online (most while doing homework).

Assets

Graphic assets and a printable invite are available at: <http://thepornevent.com/share>